

Interpreting for Allied Health Professionals Program

Overview:

Darling Downs & West Moreton PHN (DDWMPHN) has established the Interpreting for Allied Health Professionals Program to:

- support access to private Allied Health services by non-English speaking clients,
- ensure interpreter service at nil cost to Allied Health Professionals working in private practice to communicate with people from a refugee background.

Program Summary:

The program is funded by DDWMPHN through a capped funding stream. DDWMPHN will administer the program within the DDWMPHN catchment area, with interpreting services delivered by Translating and Interpreting Service (TIS) National. The program enables AHP's who register with the program to receive access to the following interpreting service at nil cost to the practice or to the client:

- Immediate phone interpreting,
- Pre-booked phone interpreting.

Private AHP's who register into the program are provided access to TIS at nil cost to themselves until 30th June 2018. Ongoing delivery of the program post June 2018 will be determined through evaluation of the success of the program and subject to future budget approval.

Eligibility:

Allied Health Professionals eligible for the program include:

Audiologists	Diabetes Educator	Dieticians	Dentists
Exercise Physiologists	Mental Health workers	Physiotherapists	Psychologists
Podiatrists	Occupational therapists	Optometrists
Speech Pathologists

Allied Health Professionals who are involved in the program must agree to:

- Complete cross-cultural training
- Bulk bill clients they consult with under this program or charge a minimal gap payment
- Participate in an evaluation of the program.
