

Refugee Health Network Queensland

REFUGEE HEALTH PRIMARY CARE CLINICAL ADVISORY GROUP

Are you are interested in meeting other clinicians who work with patients from refugee backgrounds?

The RHNQ Clinical Advisory Group meets regularly to support clinicians and primary care providers who are working with patients from refugee backgrounds.

The Clinical Advisory Group facilitates:

- Peer support and collaboration
- Discussion of emerging clinical and policy issues
- Development of clinical resources and education events
- Contributes to system advocacy

MEMBERSHIP

The group includes members from across Queensland who work within the primary care sector including GPs, Practice Nurses, Refugee Health Nurses, Primary Health Networks (PHNs), the Pharmacy Guild and Settlement Services.

Contact Dr Rachel Claydon
E: rachel.claydon@mater.org.au

